Gapwren

Gapwren refills cancelled physical therapy slots by text, before the hour is lost

Built by a physical therapist who owned a four-therapist clinic for nine years

Pre-launch. In daily use at one clinic since May 2026.

THE PROBLEM

Our clinic lost 148 visit slots to late cancellations in ten weeks

The call comes late	Most cancellations arrive the same morning
Nobody refills it	The front desk is busy checking patients in
The hour is gone	The therapist is paid and the room sits empty

Source: the founder's clinic schedule, 148 cancelled slots, May to July 2026

THE SOLUTION

Gapwren texts the waitlist the minute a patient cancels

It texts in order	Patients who asked for an earlier visit hear first
The first yes gets it	The calendar updates without a phone call
The desk sees it	One line on the day sheet, and nothing to chase

A slot opened at 2:30 today.

Reply YES to take it.

YES

You are booked for 2:30.

THE ASK

We are raising $600,000 to reach 120 paying clinics in 18 months

Price	$180 a month for each clinic
At 120 clinics	120 x $180 x 12 = $259,200 a year (Estimate)
Use of funds	Product $280,000, reaching clinics $200,000, running the company $120,000
Runway	18 months at about $33,000 a month
Next step	A 30 minute call to walk through one clinic's schedule

Estimate inputs: the price is the founder's own. The clinic count is the milestone.
